Plot

Kabir Dewan, an architect, proposes to his girlfriend, Natasha Arora, an interior designer. At their engagement party, Natasha learns that Kabir is planning a bachelor party, a three-week road trip in Spain, with his best friends from school, Arjun Saluja, an investment banker based in London, and Imran Qureshi, a copywriter. According to a long-standing pact, each friend must pick an adventure sport, unbeknown to the other two, for all three to do together. Arjun is reluctant to join the trip due to his commitment to work, but Kabir convinces him to come, reminding him that the same trip was cancelled four years ago. Imran plans to find his biological father, Salman Habib, an artist who lives in Spain, after finding a letter from him to his mother.

The three friends meet in Spain and plan their trip, though Arjun continues working remotely. On their way to the Costa Brava, Imran, fed up with Arjun's workaholicism, throws Arjun's phone out the car window, triggering an argument between them about Imran having slept with Arjun's girlfriend four years prior, which is what caused the original trip to be cancelled. Kabir stops the argument, and they continue their journey.

At the Costa Brava, Imran meets and flirts with Laila, an Anglo-Indian fashion design student. Kabir reveals he has chosen deep sea diving as his planned activity, which angers Arjun, who is aquaphobic. Their diving instructor turns out to be Laila, who manages to calm Arjun down during the activity and make him overcome his fear. Later, Kabir video calls Natasha, who sees Laila in his room and becomes suspicious. Arjun agrees to postpone his planned activity in Seville after Laila suggests the four of them attend La Tomatina in Buñol along with her friend, Nuria. After the festival, they return to their hotel and find Natasha waiting for them in the lobby.

Natasha argues with Kabir about her suspicions, refusing to hear him out. After they all have dinner, Imran and Nuria sleep together, and Arjun and Laila go on a walk, where Arjun tells her his plan to retire at 40 and explains his obsession with money as a result of having observed his mother struggling to repay his late father's loans. Laila advises him to let go of his trauma and live life to the fullest, and they begin to fall in love. The three men leave the next day to drop Natasha off at the airport. Laila, who is leaving for Morocco soon, chases them on her bike, not wanting to regret not expressing her feelings to Arjun. She catches up to them and stops the car, kissing Arjun passionately. Natasha flies back to London, relieved of her suspicions, though Arjun and Imran aren't convinced that Kabir is happy with her.

The three men leave for Seville, where Arjun has planned skydiving, to the chagrin of Imran, who is afraid of heights. Imran completes the activity and overcomes his fear. That night, they go to a bar and try to pull a prank on a patron, which goes wrong when they get into a fight, causing the three friends to be arrested. Imran reveals that Salman is his biological father and calls him to bail them out of jail. They go to his house, where Salman confesses to Imran that he did not want the responsibility of being a husband and father. A hurt Imran, having gained closure and perspective, sincerely apologises to Arjun for sleeping with his girlfriend. The two reconcile.

The three friends leave for Pamplona, where Imran reveals his chosen activity is the bull run. Kabir reveals that he did not mean to propose to Natasha; he showed her the ring as a birthday gift to his mother, and Natasha mistook it as a proposal. Despite clarifying the situation to her, he decided to go along with their engagement due to their families' approval. Arjun deduces that Kabir planned the trip so that his friends would convince him to call off the wedding, and prompts Kabir to be more assertive and decisive about his life. Imran proposes a new pact if they make it out of the bull run alive, and reveals that he writes poems which he promises to publish if he survives. Arjun promises to go to Morocco with Laila, not caring if he is fired from his job, and Kabir promises to tell Natasha he is not ready to marry her. They complete the bull run.

During the credits, Arjun and Laila get married in Morocco; Imran and Nuria are now in a relationship, and Natasha is in a relationship with another man but remains friends with Kabir.
